

DAVID KAYE is Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania's premier stand-up comedian with a career spanning three decades of corporate, casino, cruise line, college and comedy club performances. His long list of credits includes performances for Fortune 500 Company events, as well as starring roles in independent films and national television appearances on Comedy Central and ABC Television.

CORPORATE CLEAN COMEDIAN - David Kaye's affable persona quickly warms the chilliest of crowds and his natural talent keeps them engaged from the moment he takes the stage. His tongue-in cheek delivery stays within the bounds of good taste, and he tailors the content to suit every situation, including inside jokes about your event that will have everyone laughing in the aisles!

MASTER OF CEREMONIES - When it comes to presenting awards, making announcements and staying on schedule, David Kaye is a well spoken professional. His light hearted humor keeps your event running smoothly and prevents your boss from making an embarrassing faux pas by mispronouncing the names of awardees, retirees, guests and spouses.

CORPORATE IMPOSTOR - Turn a boring after dinner speech into an outrageously funny and memorable occasion with a hilarious Corporate Impostor. Whether predicting hard economic times as the new Chief Financial Officer or poking fun at a predecessor as the new Department Director, David Kaye will turn the tables on guests with a custom written presentation to trick them into believing he is the real deal.
